Numb. 4000

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday March 9. to Monday March 13. 1703.

Dublin, March 4.

THE Two Houſes of Parliament of this Kingdom have attended his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with the following Addreſſes.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to lay before Your Majeſty our moſt humble Acknowledgments and hearty Thanks for Your Majeſty's Tender Care of this your Kingdom of Ireland, and for theſe happy Effects of Your Majeſty's great Wiſdom and Goodneſs, the many Excellent Bills by your Order Tranſmitted to us this Seſſion of Parliament.

And as we doubt not but theſe good Laws will advance the Proſperity of the Engliſh Intereſt in this Kingdom, and be a laſting Security to the Proteſtant Religion by Law Eſtabliſhed, ſo we think our ſelves obliged in Gratitude and Duty to aſſure Your Majeſty, That we will contribute all we can to thoſe Glorious Ends, that we and our Poſterity may Celebrate Your Majeſty's Reign, which has been diſtinguiſhed by ſuch effectual Marks of your Royal Favour, and which we earneſtly pray may be long and happy over us.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes of Ireland, in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's Faithful and Obedient Commons, do in moſt humble manner return our ſincere and hearty Thanks for Your Majeſty's abundant Goodneſs to your dutiful Subjects of this Kingdom, in tranſmitting the many admirable Laws we have received this Seſſion, more particularly thoſe excellent Bills for preventing the further Growth of Popery; by which we hope the pernicious Deſigns and Practices of the Profeſſors of that Religion will be effectually defeated, and our Church as by Law Eſtabliſhed greatly ſtrengthened and ſecured.

Theſe Royal Bounties and Conceſſions demand our utmoſt Acknowledgments, and oblige us to repeat our humble Aſſurances of the Continuance of our Duty and Loyalty to Your Majeſty; and that we will, to our Power, ſupport, maintain and defend, your Royal Perſon and Government, the Proteſtant Succeſſion as ſettled by Acts of Parliament in England, and the Church of Ireland as by Law eſtabliſhed.

To his Grace James Duke of Ormond, Lord Lieutenant-General and General-Governor of Ireland.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, do with great Satisfaction behold your Grace following the Example of your Illuſtrious Anceſtors, in your eminent Loyalty to the Crown, your conſtant Adherence to the Religion by Law eſtabliſhed, and your ſincere and hearty Endeavours for the Proſperity of this your Native Country.

We now attend your Grace to acknowledge and congratulate in the Concluſion of this Seſſion the good Effects of your indefatigable Application, as well in the framing, as in obtaining, the return of the many good Bills from Her Majeſty, now ready for the Royal Aſſent: We cannot ſufficiently expreſs our Gratitude to our moſt Religious and Gracious Queen for ſo many Inſtances of Her Goodneſs, (at one time beſtowed upon us) but eſpecially for the Bill to prevent the Growth of Popery.

And we are ſo ſenſible of the great part your Grace had in the diſpenſing theſe Favours to us, that as we are obliged by Intereſt and Duty to ſupport Her Majeſty's Crown and Dignity, ſo we ſhall always endeavour to contribute to your Grace's Honour and Eaſe in the Adminiſtration of this Government.

To his Grace James Duke of Ormond, Lord Lieutenant-General, and General-Governor of Ireland.

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes, in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe Your Grace,

WE Her Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament aſſembled, do render our hearty Acknowledgments to your Grace for your zealous and ſucceſsful Interpoſition with Her Majeſty in favour of this your Native Country.

It is to Her Majeſty's unparallel'd Goodneſs, and your Grace's ſincere and happy Endeavours, we owe the many good Bills which have been tranſmitted to us in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament.

When we recollect the Honourable Part your moſt Noble Grandfather had in the Settlement of the Proteſtant Intereſt in this Kingdom, we cannot but congratulate your Grace's greater Glory and Felicity, in being the Inſtrument (under Her Majeſty) of giving a more laſting Security to the Proteſtant Religion than ever it had ſince the Reformation.

The Experience we have of your Grace's Goodneſs to us, doth juſtly encourage us to beſeech your Grace to repreſent to Her Majeſty the State of this Kingdom, the Difficulties we lie under, and the Zeal we have ſhewed this Seſſion to ſupport Her Majeſty's Government to the utmoſt of our Power, and to continue your generous Inſtances in our favour, that this Nation may be rendred entirely happy in Her Majeſty's moſt Auſpicious Reign, and under your Grace's Adminiſtration.

This day his Grace came with the uſual Formalities to the Houſe of Peers; and the Commons being ſent for up, his Grace gave the Royal Aſſent to

An Act for continuing the Additional Duty of Exciſe on Beer, Ale and other Liquors; and for ganting an Additional Duty on Tobacco, and ſeveral other Goods and Merchandizes; and alſo a Tax of Four Shillings in the Pound on ſeveral Penſions and Grants therein mentioned; and for Building of Barracks in the City of Dublin. An Act to make it High Treaſon in this Kingdom to Impeach the Succeſſion of the Crown as limited by ſeveral Acts of Parliament. An Act to prevent the further Growth of Popery. An Act to prohibit Butchers from being Graziers, and to redreſs ſeveral Abuſes in Buying and Selling of Cattel, and in the Slaughtering and Packing of Beef, Tallow and Hides. An Act for Regiſtring the Popiſh Clergy in this Kingdom. An Act for Naturalizing all Proteſtant Strangers in this Kingdom. An Act for reducing of Intereſt of Money to Eight per Cent. Civil Bills. An Act for quieting Poſſeſſions, and diſpoſing the undiſpoſed and Plus Acres. An Act for quieting Eccleſiaſtical Perſons in their Poſſeſſions. An Act for the Exchange of Glebes belonging to Churches in this Kingdom. An Act for reviving an Act for taking away the Benefit of Clergy in ſome Caſes, and for Tranſporting Felons. An Act for Building ſeveral Pariſh-Churches in more convenient Places. An Act to ſupply the Defect in an Act paſſed in the Seventh Year of the late King William, Entituled, An Act for the better regulating of Meaſures in and throughout this Kingdom. An Act for continuing Two Acts againſt Tories, Robbers, and Rapparees. And 10 Private Acts.

After which his Grace made the following Speech to both Houſes.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is with great Satisfaction that I can at the end of this Seſſion ſay, That I have performed what I promiſed in the beginning: But the Succeſs of my Endeavours, which you have expreſſed in your Addreſſes, muſt be ſolely attributed to Her Majeſty, whoſe extraordinary Goodneſs has given you ſo many and ſo good Laws in this Seſſion of Parliament.

Her Majeſty has by the Act concerning Plus Acres parted with Her own Property to enlarge and ſecure yours: And by the Acts to prevent the further Growth of Popery, has, as far as in Her lies, eſtabliſhed your Religion for the time to come.

I will not fail to repreſent to the Queen, That Her Faithful Commons of Ireland, out of their Zeal to Her Service, and in return of theſe Royal Condeſcentions, have chearfully given Her Majeſty as great a Supply as the preſent Circumſtances of their Condition would permit.

It were indeed to be wiſh'd, That you, Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons, could have now provided for what is ſtill owing to the Civil and Military Liſts; and the rather, becauſe the Arrears (a State of which the Commiſſioners of the Revenue were ordered by me to lay before you at the opening of this Parliament) muſt be applied to make good the Deficiencies of the current Year, as has been done in former Governments. But I hope our next Meeting will give you an Opportunity of providing for it; and that the Succeſs of Her Majeſty's Arms in the mean time may put you into ſuch Circumſtances as may render it eaſie to you.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

As I will upon all Occaſions faithfully repreſent to the Queen the true State of this Kingdom, and in the moſt effectual manner recommend it to Her Majeſty for the continuance of Her Grace and Favour ſo I muſt earneſtly recommend to you, That on your Parts, and in your ſeveral Countries, you take ſuch Care of the Publick Peace, and the Execution of the good Laws already made, that we may all reap the Benefit of Her Majeſty's moſt happy Government.

And then his Grace Prorogued the Parliament to the 3d of October next.

St. James's, March 11. The following Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and the reſt of the Clergy, of the Dioceſe of Exeter, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Reverend Dr. Wake Dean of Exeter, accompanied with other Dignitaries of that Church who were introduced by his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of York.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, and the Dean and Chapter with the reſt of the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Exeter.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Biſhop and the Dean and Chapter, with the reſt of your Clergy of the Dioceſe of Exeter, being deeply ſenſible of Your Majeſty's Gracious